Subject: Looking for demo messages for BA display
Message-ID: <9606052054.AA100199@csemail.cropsci.ncsu.edu>

Continuing the saga of our funzies BA demo station this upcoming Field Day, I was wondering if anyone had any exact text messages of historical note that might make good background music in CW whilst the demo crowd mosies by the displays.

If anyone has any such historical messages from WWII that are pretty close to exact, as-sent text, I would love to get a copy (email hopefully, if possible to save having to multiple-key them in).

If I can get some, I will cut a tape and play them in the background.

I would prefer anything that would have probably been sent CW or broadcast, such as the VE or VJ or death of Roosevelt messages that were broadcast in the clear.

Ahhh, such sweet historical music....(:+}}.....

Any pointers, texts, etc., appreciated.

If there is any interest, I will make the thing available as a complete system of messages that can be run on computer to key a demo station, using the Morse code programs in the BA/GB archives.
